O R D E R:

The Commissioner, Panchayat Raj and Rural Development in his letter 2nd read above has informed that the Ministry of Panchayat Raj, Government of India, has stated that the Local Government Directory (LGD) application is now being used by many Union Ministries / Departments for implementation of various schemes, therefore, he has requested to complete the validation and updation of data in Local Government Directory (LGD) application as per the action plan indicated by the Ministry, Government of India and intimate the action taken in the matter. Further, the Jt. Secy., MoPR, GoI, while enclosing the guidelines of Local Government Directory has also requested to issue instructions to the concerned departments to complete the updation/modification of LGD codes/application and the activities listed in the guidelines.

2. The Ministry of Panchayat Raj, Government of India has been maintaining a Local Government Directory (LGD), e-application (core application of PES) which is a standard location directory of all administrative units (District/Block/GramPanchayats/Villages/Urban Local Bodies etc.,) that also provides an online mechanism for updating directory as and when there is any changes in the boundary of administrative units due to creation/splitting/merger of the same. The specific activities involved are

- a) Regular updation of location codes in LGD app as and when there is any changes in the boundary of administrative unit
- b) All schemes databases to use location codes as provided in LGD.

3. In order to adopt and use LGD codes/application for all the schemes implemented by the Ministry and States, a Committee has been constituted in MoPR with the representation from different Ministries/Departments and communicated the guidelines, action points with timelines for rollout/adoption of LGD codes/application by the States.

4. The Commissioner, Panchayat Raj while furnishing the status report on the given guidelines/action points by the MoPR., GoI., has requested to constitute a High Level Coordination Committee (HLCC) under the Chairmanship of Principal Secretary, PR &RD Department, to discuss and finalize the further course of Action Plan on adoption of LGD codes/application.
